pressors of their father and—for they creat near the British troops in Canada, who are occasionally questioned in Indand, as the defenders of the common despotism of a government against which they local hereaftery introd.

The quotas allowed to all the States are now preparing for battle on the houter. They left quittly in citizens' dress, and until their advention British soil, their departure was not known costide of the lunedate advocates of the im-outside of the unmeanace acrossors of the fection of the ferminagampalga under Sweeney, as she did when Troy demanded her able-bodied citizens to enter the ranks to light the robels. In addition to those who left pievously, twelve hundred youngment, who had been mustered into various teginents, depasted from New York for Canada on Thursday night. Some of the Fentans take great pide in the fact that the United States authorities in this city were unable to obtain information in time to prevent the movement.

THE PLANS OF THE CAMPAIGN

It is known that, although the plans of the campaign in Canada will be ultimately governed by any unbooked for circumstances which may arise, the military programme of the officers who have them in charge, is definite and comprehensive. A council of war was recently held, when all the Generals now in the field received specific orders from the Commander-in-Chief, and the most perfect understanding now exists among the leaders who have buckled on their armor for the fight.

EXTRA TUBING AND CABLE. THE NUMBERS OF THE PENIAN ARREST IN ACTIVE

The officers who altoted the quotas followed the course adopted by Goneral Fry in the beginning of the life war. To use a vulgarism, they due it mild," because they had not the peculiary athing to support a great army. After estimating the strength of the British troops in Canada, and weighing the possible resistance likely to be received from the "byalists," it was inscitled to send only thirty five thousand armed Fonians to attack the combined bady of Blue Noses, tivic and military. This, of itself, must be regarded as great an insult to the Canadianas the invasion of their sacred soil, at the very period when they are reconvering from the freezing visitations of zero. There is, however, a large reserve force in readiness for any emergency which may alse.

The Materiel of the arms.

The Fenian heat which has crossed the border is composed exclusively of soldiers who have fought in the Northern and Southern armies during the late war, and the campaign, in its inception, has thus inaugurated a portion of the retribution long since threatened against the British Government, which was charged with the betraying both sections of the country, in order to divide them for ever. The threatmies of the service—eavalry, infantry and artillary, are well represented in the Fenian army; and among those effinects with it are officers who served under General Well it are officers who served under General Well it are officers who served and Control Sheridan, Gen. Not since the hour when the late Head Centre.
O' Wishony amounced in the Philadelphia Confress that the people of Freland were in arms for their liberty, have the Frelans of this city been more agitated and eached than when the news flashed across the wirez yesterday, that a large force of armed troops, connected with the Roberts organization, had crossed the Canadina frontier and exputured Fon Eric Those not connected with that is used of the parent association of this liberators—which was found when empidity was the ruling passion in the Molfat mansion—were not aware of the stimens, the tack, and the determination of the man who had denounced O' Mahony, in the Language of James Stephens an "latheelie," until this head from at least a dozen telegraphic stations which form connections with the open territory of the Blue Noses, that thous ands of uniquipment soldiers skilled in the arts of war during the terrible ordeal of the and steel through which this Republic passed in safety, had manched into the country of the SPEECH OF SENATOR PITZGERALD Senator Furgerald was first introduced to the coefing, and spoke at considerable length. He a man of about 55 years of age, a fluent speak-, and evidently an enthusiastic Fenian. He be is a man of about 35 years of age, a fluent speaker, and evidently an enthusiastic Fenian. He began by saying that for the first time since 1782 in Irish army was in the field for the liberation of Iteland. Femanism had at last reactived into a secrous organization. The position of the antiferior in the last twenty four hours should be a sufficient grurriate that all is not smoke in the fenian ranks. To-day he said the blood-stained banners of Bittain did not stain Fort Erre, but to night the piece along of Er in floats over that place. He told them the hour had arrived for them to and Ireland's freedom, or for England with all her despotism. There was no such thing as all her despotism. There was no such thing as the ingeneral an the case—they must either go for Ireland or for England—for the Fenian unity or against it Those frishmen who promised to come forward and grue of their means when an army was put in the field, had now an opportunity to carry out their promise. From all they had seen and heard, tead in the papers, &c., they must know that antive movements of troops are being made, and that the ledge of the Brotherhood were now carrying out their promises. He told them that the flight of Iroland to night has floathen to say whether they would support their hothers in the fleid or prove recteant. He asked them if they were prepared to back those in the fleid, and was answered by loud cheers und affiliantons.

The speaker went on to say that before many fire and steel through which this Republic passed it safety, but manched into the country of the common enemy, in order to scene a territorial base of operations to effect, ultimately, the free-dom of the Emerald Isle from the rule of the Saxon. The news of the "massen" fell with wonder and ascounsheart on all who classed the Roberts organization as a mere duplicate of the one from which it separated; but those midiated in the movements and purposes of Roberts and Sweney, knew well that it was determined not such the four the fourneements when the fourneements when the fourneements when the same than the same and the same than the same and the same than the same and the sa

He hoped they did think so, and that they would send 5,000 of their brane volunteers to Fort Erie. Let them come, he said, and he would gravantee that they would receive a warm reception. They would find on their arrival formers worthy of their steel, and they mapke that some arms with Her Gracoma Majesty Victoria's brand upon them. He spoke of the St. Albana raid, and add there would probably be mother raid there soon, but of a different channeter. This was the hour of trial, and it would plove who are enemies and who me fitteds of the organization. He hoped that the American people would rake a cry of inlignation against those Mayors or other officials who pandered base of operations. In Toronto, Quebue an Montreat they would, in a few days, also light the British Government. They had no doub but that they can humble the British Government in Canada. When they do this they expendey will be granted belligerent rights by the American Government, when they will it our involvers. In conclusion he space about trait da, Gen. Ton Sweeney would pay them off, when he succeeded in driving out the Britishers.

Senator Howard, of Michigan, in his recent appear on Reconstruction, told pratty nearly the whole truth amout the President's policy. He stated that the President's policy. He stated that the President in assuming to re-organize the States without the legislative authority of Congress, was acting without law, and that in eachly innoring the power of Congress over sinted that the President In assuming to reorganize the Stutes without the legislative authority of Congress, was acting without law, and that in coolly ignoring the power of Congress vertice status of second States, and in denying to Congress any other power than that of deciding upon the qualifications of its members, he was guilty of usurpation Mr. Howard also plainly expressed the opinion that any attempt by the President to re-organize a rebel Congress would feat to his removal, and thus the North would all that the farther than to submit to such a revolution. These are sound sentiments. We only regret that thus far Congress has not acted upon them, by going to the role of the reconstruction difficulty, the denial by Jehmson's proclamations of the right of sulfrage to byni men, and so recity the error. Congress, ms a body, has declined to exercise the powers they have over the reconstruction question. At least a hundred members of Congress profess to be in favor of an extension of the suffrage. Not, one of them has voted to excite the power which they all believe they possees. The excuse is a fear that the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for it. We tell them the people are not prepared for its we tell them the people are not prepared for its we tell them the people are not prepared for the people are not prepared for the well them to the power with the people are not prepared for the people are not prepared for the set of them.

The reception at West Point, of the news of the Feulan raid, created considerable excitement among the army officers. Major-Geneni Meade was much exercised in mind, and stated that it the Fenians had accomplished what the reports stated they had, it would require at least three months to put an end to the war against Caunda. The subject was viewed in on exceedingly crisislight, and not the slightest disposition was shown to laugh at the matter. At the hotel where many of the officers assembled, after the obscquies of General Scott, the subject was feely discussed, and not a single man was found who declated his convictionito be that this latest Fenian demonstration was of ap account and unworthy the action of the United States Government. The Fenian Invasion—Reinforcements from Oll Creek.

The excitement created by the Fenian invasion is confined to no locality, and the signal for the grand demonstration upon II. B. M. Canadian Provinces seems to have been communicated with electric rapidity to every section of the country. Yesterday morning it was rumored that the Titueville and Oil Creek Fenians were to start for the seal of war on the noon train. A little investigation proved the rumor to be correct. Small parties of men who looked as if they might be Fenjans, from speeks of "blood in the eye, were engaged in carnest consultation on the street corners. The headquarters of Centre Donoven had a busy aspect. Members of the Broth erhood assembled there one after the other, and after receiving their orders quietly departed " Capt. Charles Quinn, of the St. Nicholas Ale Vaults, is the military leader of the Titusville company, numbering 100 men. He appeared to ng the necessary preparations for departure. At five minutes must 12 o'clock Centi-Donovan made his appearance near the rallicad station, with his hands in his pockets, looking anything but the head and front of a milila ry organization. As the hour approached for the train to arrive, the platform because densely packed with Fenians and their friends. Every thing was very quiet and orderly. The parting salutations were very affecting. Capt. Quinn had as much as he could do in distributing his photographs among the girls he was leaving behind him. When the stock was exhausted be told those who were unsupplied that the negative was in town and they could procure copies ut the photograph gallery.

As the train approached, bringing eighty Feni-ans from below, the excitement was intense.— Over 500 men and women were at the depot to bid farewell to their friends, and the weeping women and hearty grip of the hand between man and man, with promises of support from those left behind, bore strong evidence of the unity of purpose existing among them. The train at last moved off amid waving of handkerchiefs and hearty farewells from all sides.

that the Trusville Fenians are bound for Salamanca. It is quite evident there is to be a grand procentration of reinforcements at some point or the border, but it does not yet appear thu any decisive results will be effected. In the light of reason and common sense, the entite movement appears like a military farce. The Feulans seem to have no real concert of action no substantial base of operations. They are also without any considerable munitions of war. Evidently the attack is made as a last desperate venture of the leaders of the trish cause to graffy the patriotic ardor of the Irish masses and ap pease the wrath of the incredulous. In our own judgment the invasion is practically ended and the cause of Irish Independence has met with its final reverse.

No little stir or excitement is manifesting itself in our midst at the present time. Business for the past few weeks slightly reinxed, being to sumed with greater activity, and a flourishing city is rapidly rising up to compete with any in the oil regions. Messts, Bissell & Co., bankers, of this city, will soon commence the erection of magnificent structure of brick, on the of Washington street and the Titusvillo road,-When completed it will add greatly to the wealth and prosperity of this place. Business on the Creek was suspended for a few days, in consequence of low water, but the heavy rains of last rock filled up the creek and the market is much haproved and more active. : Hotel keepers are rejoicing over the excess of business in their line. The "Rochester House, Mr. J. Bellows Pro. prietor; "Off Exchange," Lewis & Green, Proprictors; "American," Mr. J. R. Barnes and that gentlemanly enterer, Mr. Deyo, Proprietors; the "Rowe House," and Mr. George W. Alten's Hotel, with Elisha Grover, of the "American" Hotel, Titusville, as Superintendent, all are flour ishing, and each striving to make imppy and contented om good friends from "America," who come to pay respects to the greatest oil pro-ducing territory in the world. While on the subject of hotels we cannot refrain from menloning that a hotel on the European plan line seen opened here by that, prince of handlords, Charlle Topliff, of New York city. The Me2 ville Lodge arrived with full ranks lest evening, and deputations are also present from Rochester, Buffalo, Ette, and other points in Pennsylvania. The guests were received last woning at the deput by the Trinsville Lodge and marched under musical escort to the Lodge

This morning at 8 o'clock the Lodge and the invited guests will assemble at Corinthian Hall, at, which point the procession will be organized, and will move through Spring, Monroe, Mechan-ic, Franklin, Diamond, Pine, Main and Washingon streets to the festival grounds, Abbott and Bates' grove. Here music and social games target shooting, gymnastic feats, sack jumping, &c., will fill up the morning interval.

The afternoon exercises will include an address by C. M. Bonsh, Esq., of Meadville, the presentation of a dag and address by Mrs. M Dufft of Titusville, and reply by Mr. A. Kaffert of Meadville. Remarks in English by other speakers will conclude the intellectual exercises Supper will be served on the grounds, and the procession will then reform and march to Corinthin: il.dl. In the evening a grand ball will take place in the Hall. It has been splendidly lecomical for the occasion, and presents a very attractive appearance. m. M. Pettie' Record.

I have noticed in two papers of this county, which Mr. Pettle seems to have an interest in, the publication of a letter purporting to come from Hon. B. F. Wade, wherely the latter is made to pluy the part of "bolsterer" to the former's very shaky record as a Republican. That a statesman of Mr. Wade's undoubted Radlealism, should, fend bland to ussist a near that from 1861 to 1864 the Republicans of this section thought and believed had gone over thody and breeches" to the "Conservatives" is singular, but it only shows how little Judge Wade really knows of the person he appears as endorser for For his benefit, and for the enlightenment of those who may have paid no attention to the matter, I feel it my duty to give a slight expo-sition Mr. P.'s record politically, during the past few years.

Hon, Alex. K. McClure, late State Senator from the Chambersburg district, that he (Pettis) open ly opposed the re-election of Governor Curtin in 1863, and favored the election of Judge Woodward, the Copperhead candidate, was no new thing for Mr. Pettis. He has long been known by those posted in his political provements a sound in the party nominatio It is a notorious fact that he 1857 he opposed one of the Republican condidates for the Su-preme Court, (the Hon Joseph J. Lewis) and supported James Thompson, of Erle, long known in this section as a madigment Democratic parti-

It is also a fact that can be as easily prover at in 1858 Mr. Pettls repeated his unfaithfulnes of 1857 by openly opposing the Hon. John M Read, the Republican number, and supporting and laboring for William A, Porter, the Demo cratic Lecompton candidate

It is also a fact that in 1861 he was bitterly op posed to the election of Hon. M. B. Lowry, Republican candidate for State Senstor, and that he ent through the western part of the county traking " no party" speeches, the object of which was to assist William A. Ga braith, the Copperhead candulate, and discourage Republicans a Tar as possible from sustaining their nomina

These are well known hets, of which Judge Wade may be ignorant, but which are nevertheless true. Mr. Pettis has supported the Repub lican party when it suited him, and when h thought his interests lay in another direction be has opposed it. This is the character of his po litical record throughout. Here are four acts of political apostacy within seven years. How many others there are that have been kept unde cover I enough say; but to put it in its mildes form, Mr. Pettis has been guilty of political rec reancy, which renders it unsale to place him is the important position he asks. Democrats have openly acknowledged that he gave them aid and comfort in the important campagn of 1861, and in the fearful struggle of 1863, when the eyes of the whole country were turned to Pennsylvania and the heart of every soldier in the field tren bled lest the avowed enemy of the Government Julge Woodward, should succeed our present faithful and unwavering Governor. consequences to the nation would have been had the wishes of Mr. Pettis for the defeat of Govern or Curtis been accomplished, "it half not entered the heart of man to conceive." Nothing but a direct inteference of Divine Providence could

Such are a few only of the many instances of S Newton Petris' lack of fidelity to the Republi-can party and its principles. Fellow-Republieans, lils record is far from being a sound one,-Our experience in trusting doubtful men has been bitter enough in the past. Let us take warning in time and see to it. None but a stanneh and tried Republican, "known and read of all men," and one who is not driven to gather up certificates of character from a man who ha not known blur for twenty years, shall represent this district in the next Congress.

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

The petroleum markets remain firm at previous quo-tations. The producers are holding oil firm at $4.00, although some few lots were offered at lower figures, it or from small wells where the tanks were full trainously low figures.

The total production of last year amounted to 2,317, -342 barrels, out of which there were exported 718,100 burrels. The balance of 1,528,642 barrels being consumed in this country. Now we have already experted upwards of three fourths of all the oil experted has upwards of three fourths of all the oil exported tast year, and mir production this year has not averaged mything like what it did last year, therefore it follows that the amount left for home consumption must be limited. Nor in there any prospect of an increase of production. If last year we consumed in the Northern States 1,598,642 barrels, the question naturally arises how much will the Southern States consume. It is reasonable to suppose that they will consume one half of what was used in the Northern States, especially as they have little or no zea.

they have little or no gas.

We will suppliese therefore that their demand will be we will suppose therefore that their demand will be me-half of what it is is a the Northen States. This would be 199,21 barrels, which, added to what we non-sumed host year, would make 2,387,663 barrels for home consumption, if, and provided we do not consume any more in the Northern States thus year than we did hat. We will now add to the the present of the we did hat. more in the Northern States this year than we did has, We will now add to this the caports of this year which we will make the same as those of last year, namely, 715,000 barrels, this would make a total demand for export and home consumption of 3,116 563 barrels. Now ite question may very reasonably be asked, where is all this supply to come from ! Is there any g that we can produce two thirds or re-mone-half this smooth of oil during the present year). We may also teller our readers to another column in which it will be abserted that crude petroleum is about to be utilized for the manufacture of gas. This will not interfere with the demand for radial for fill minimizing purposes; it will simply be used by those who are now communers of gas in the cities. The estimate of the definition, if this project is successfully carded out, as will not enture to estimate, but it may be inagined by each cuballing the millions of subferies to a name the citating the millions of subferies to a name the that we can produce two thirds or ee mone-half this entating the millions of cubic feet of gas annually co

PITTSBURGH OIL MARKET. (Epselul to the Mountage Herald.)

The crude oil market was emphatically flat this fore-noon. Holders were particularly anxious to realize and were effering fully at 14d, barrels returned without find-ing any buyers. Takers at large ther, the indications were decidedly adverse to sellers. We heard of no sales and do not believe that any activity can be established until holders in the further crosset lows.

The sales usade on Baturday afternion were at 14@ 14% batch returned. At the time of closing our report we could not obtain nything definite from Oll City regarding the water. In refined oil there was nothing doing and the market ing downward.

Free oll and no inquiry beyond a small sale to the retail trade at irregular prices.

CARVER'S DOUBLE ACTING OIL PUMP.

TO OIL MEN.

This pump consists of two barrels, one within the other, and each having its soperato valves and acting indopendent of the other. The action is

DOUBLE, and as much oil is raised at the

DOWNWARD UPWARD STOKE.

THE DOUBLE BET OF VALVES allows the FREE ESCAPE of gas through one or the other of the barrels, without affecting the pumping, and thus enables the pump to work without obstruction in wells where the common pump cannot be worked at all. AN IMPROVED PISTON of double the strength of the old one has been invented which will be excepted FREE to all parties using the old stating valvo in these pumps. These pumps have now been used on over one hundred wells. For eale by HONTIS, HART & BURROWS, Over Petroleum Bank, and McMULLEN & BRYAN, mbt24 Franklin street, Titusville, Fa.
